

Sonali Kale, Director:

Sonali is an avid promoter of wellness through Yoga and Nutrition and is currently writing childrens books on Yoga. She is the receipt of an honorary doctorate from AYUSH ministry in India for research in Ayurveda in March 2016. She has two daughters, one who has successfully graduated from Surrey Schools and started University and one in grade six.

Sonali’s 15 year journey in Canada has seen her through a career starting at retail management, finance and steadying in health and wellness. The journey includes several years of volunteering with the schools in capacities of PAC president, SPC liason, DPAC representative and regular attendee of Surrey School growth plan meetings. She believes that a strong educational foundation for children is a sureshot for life success. She would like to see stronger communication in Surrey Scool PACs with DPAC to smoothen the common and constant concerns problems of most elementary and highschoools parents.
